

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILLING OUT A SINGLE PERSON WILL
WITH NO CHILDREN. YOU ONLY HAVE TO FILL IN INFORMATION IN THE SECTIONS LISTED BELOW TO COMPLETE YOUR WILL.

1. Fill in your name in each blank marked with an asterisk (*) as the Maker.

SECTION SECOND:

2. Fill in who you want your estate to go to upon your death. Sample distribution provisions are included to assist you in doing this correctly.

SECTION THIRD:

3. Fill in the names of the people you want to be your Personal Representative. This is the person who collects your assets, pays your debts and distributes your estate to your heirs. This is also the person who would hold your assets in trust for any minors you leave something to who have not reached the age to collect their inheritance that you select in Section Fifth.

SECTION FIFTH:

4. If any part of your estate were to go to a someone who is a minor, you can select the age at which you want the minor to get his or her inheritance. The youngest age permitted by law is 18. Prior to reaching the age you select, your personal representative has the authority to use that minor's inheritance for that minor's health, education and welfare.

SECTION NINTH:

5. Initial what you want done with your remains after you death.

SECTION ELEVENTH:

7. Use this to give cash bequests or for other specific things you want done upon your death.

8. SECTION TWELFTH:

If you have minor children (children under the age of 18) list the names of the first and second choice of the people who you want to be the guardians of your minor children should something happen to you and you cannot care for your children. You will not have this section in your Will if you do not have any minor children.

Your Will is now ready to be signed witnessed and notarized. You sign on page 4 and on the Affidavit page. The witnesses also sign on page 4 and the Affidavit page. The notary signs on the Affidavit page. You, the witnesses and the notary must all be present when everyone signs.
