

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILLING OUT A SINGLE PERSON WILL
WITH CHILDREN. YOU ONLY HAVE TO FILL IN INFORMATION IN THE SECTIONS LISTED BELOW TO COMPLETE YOUR WILL.

1. Fill in your name in each blank space marked with an asterisk (*) as the "Maker".
2. Next fill the names of each one of your children .

SECTION SECOND:

3. Initial the first space if you want your estate to go ONLY to your surviving children after your death.
OR
Initial the second space if one of your children should die before you do and you want that child's share to go to your grandchildren by that child if that child has any children at the time of your death. If your child has no children, that deceased child's share will go to your surviving children.
4. Initial the next line and fill in who you want your estate to go to if something should happen to you, your and all of your children and their children. This would be something like all of you dying in a car or plane wreck or a common disaster. You do not have to fill this in if there is no chance of this happening. Sample distribution provisions for this section are included.

SECTION THIRD:

5. Fill in the names of the people you want to be your Personal Representative. This is the person who collects your assets, pays your debts and distributes your estate to your heirs. This is also the person who would hold your assets in trust for your children or grandchildren if they have not reached the age to collect their inheritance that you select in Section Fifth.

SECTION FIFTH:

6. If any part of your estate were to go to one of your children or grandchildren who is a minor, you can select the age at which you want the minor to get his or her inheritance. The youngest age permitted by law is 18. Prior to reaching the age you select, your personal representative has the authority to use the child's inheritance for that's child's heath, education and welfare.

SECTION NINTH:

7. Initial what you want done with your remains after you death.

SECTION ELEVENTH:

8. Use this to give cash bequests or for other specific things you want done upon your death.

SECTION TWELFTH:

9. If you have minor children (children under the age of 18) list the names of the first and second choice of the people who you want to be the guardians of your minor children should something happen to you and you cannot care for your children. You will not have this section in your Will if you do not have any minor children.

Your Will is now ready to be signed witnessed and notarized. You sign on page 4 and on the Affidavit page. The witnesses also sign on page 4 and the Affidavit page. The notary signs on the Affidavit page. You, the witnesses and the notary must all be present when everyone signs.